

Alin Sneha

Global Collaboration Expert

I help hybrid and remote IT teams collaborate better, decide faster, and increase productivity.

I have facilitated over 500 meetings and sessions, working closely with 40+ nationalities and cultures.

I lead strategy sessions, problem-solving workshops, product design discussions, and town halls, creating the structure, clarity, and alignment teams need to deliver results. I also support teams through complex and often difficult conversations, ensuring progress doesn't stall.
